

Fire Warden Training

Do you occupy a building that requires an Evacuation Scheme under the requirements of the “Fire Safety and Evacuation of Building Regulations 2006”.

These Regulations require that building occupants are trained in;

- Fire Emergency Warning Systems
- Emergency Evacuation Procedures
- Use of Fire-fighting Equipment
- Use of Other Emergency Equipment

Fire & Hazard Training Services have been offering workplace fire safety training in Canterbury since 1997. Our qualified team of instructors have extensive practical fire-fighting experience that adds value to your training experience.

NZQA Unit Standard option also available (see separate brochure)
